II. The Class:

- 5. The Class is composed of all Persons residing in Canada who have purchased Organix Products during the Class Period (N.B. the date of the Approval Order). Excluded from the Class are all Persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Class pursuant to the Pre-Approval Notice disseminated and published in accordance with the Pre-Approval Order.
- 6. The Approval Order, once issued, shall bind all those Class Members in Canada.

III. History of the Litigation:

- 7. Representative Plaintiff Debbie Corda filed a Motion to Authorize the Bringing of a Class Action & To Ascribe the Status of Representative (the “Motion to Authorize”) with the Superior Court of Quebec. The Motion to Authorize alleged, inter alia, that Vogue engaged in untrue and deceptive advertising, promotion and marketing practices associated with its Organix Products. The Representative Plaintiff sought leave to bring an action in damages, injunction relief and an action in exemplary damages against Vogue pursuant to the Competition Act (Canada), R.S.C., 1985, c. C-34, the Consumer Protection Act (Quebec), R.S.Q., c. P-40.1, and the Consumer Protection and Labelling Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-38.

8. Vogue has strenuously denied, and continues to deny, that it made any misrepresentations whatsoever with respect to its Organix Products. Vogue further holds that the Class Action does not meet the criteria for authorization specified in Article 1003 of the Quebec Code of Civil Procedure (the “Code of Civil procedure” or the “C.C.P.”), R.S.Q. c. C-25.

IV. Settlement Negotiations:

9. Class Counsel and Defence Counsel have engaged in good faith, constructive settlement discussions for several months. The Settling Parties knew about, approved and were kept informed of these ongoing discussions. On or about November 7, 2014, in conformity with the instructions provided by the Settling Parties, Class Counsel and Defence Counsel arrived at an agreement in principle to settle the Litigation.
10. The Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that the claims asserted in the Litigation have merit and that the evidence developed to date supports those claims. They recognize and acknowledge the expense and length of the complex proceedings that will be required to prosecute the Litigation. The Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel have also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risks involved in continuing with the Litigation, as well as the difficulties and delays inherent in class action proceedings. Moreover, the Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel have concluded that the Agreement provides Class Members with benefits and is fair, reasonable, appropriate and in their best interests.
11. Vogue expressly denies any wrongdoing alleged in the Class Action and does not admit or concede any actual or potential fault, wrongdoing, or liability in connection with any facts or claims that have been or could have been alleged against it in the Class Action. Vogue asserts that it has substantial factual and legal defences to all the claims alleged and that such claims are without merit. Nevertheless, Vogue has concluded that further conduct of the Litigation would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Litigation be fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set out in the Agreement. Without admitting any wrongdoing or liability whatsoever, Vogue accepts the terms of the Agreement provided that all issues relating to the subject matter of the Litigation are hereby completely resolved.

V. Settlement Benefits:

12. Vogue will pay no more than a maximum amount of CDN $325,000 (inclusive of any applicable taxes) (the “Settlement Cap”) for payment of Class Counsel Fees and Expenses, Claim Administration fees, Pre-Approval Notice costs, Award to the Representative Plaintiff, all valid Claims and all amounts that may be due to the Fonds d’aide aux recours collectifs.
13. Settlement Benefits shall consist of two primary components: (1) payments to Class Members who submit valid Claims, and (2) Vogue’s agreement to refrain from certain conduct relating to the marketing and advertising of its Organix Products.

(a) Direct compensation

14. Vogue will provide to each individual Class Member that qualifies for Compensation CDN $4.00 for each Organix Product purchased during the Class Period, up to maximum of CDN $28.
15. For each Claimant who submits a valid Claim, Vogue shall provide payment as described above, so long as providing such Compensation does not exceed the Settlement Cap. If providing each Claimant with such Compensation will exceed the Settlement Cap, then in such circumstances each Claimant’s Compensation shall be reduced on a pro rata basis.
16. For Quebec residents, it is understood that the Fonds d’aide aux recours collectifs will be entitled to claim the percentage of 2% on each individual Compensation paid in money to Class Members as provided for at s. 1(3)(a) of the Règlement sur le pourcentage prélevé par le Fonds d’aide aux recours collectifs, R.R.Q., c. R-2.1, r. 2. This means that Class Members residing in Quebec will actually receive 98% of the amount that is payable to them.

(b) Indirect compensation

17. In addition to the relief discussed above, as part of this Agreement, Vogue will agree to take commercially reasonable efforts to refrain from the following conduct:
- a) On and after July 1, 2015, Vogue shall not manufacture or cause to be manufactured any hair care or skin care product using the Organix name unless such product contains at least seventy percent (70%) organically produced ingredients, excluding water and salt;
 - b) Within thirty (30) days following the Effective Date, Vogue shall not use the word “organic” to promote the sale of any hair care or skin care product using the Organix name unless such product contains at least seventy percent (70%) organically produced ingredients, excluding water and salt.

18. For purposes of this agreement, “promote the sale of any hair care and skin care product” does not include:
- a) any explanation of Vogue's discontinuance of the Organix brand name;
 - b) truthfully responding to any inquiries about the organic content of Vogue's hair care and skin care products, including through the “Frequently Asked Questions” section of its website;
 - c) truthfully describing the organic content of Vogue's hair care and skin care products in direct communications that are not intended for public dissemination;
 - d) identifying the organic content of the product on the Information Panel in accordance with the California Organic Products Act, which at present calls for the following:
 - (1) Identifying each organic ingredient in the ingredient statement either with the word “organic” or with an asterisk or other reference mark that is defined below the ingredient statement to indicate that such ingredient is organically produced; and/or
 - (2) Displaying the total percentage of organic contents on the Informational Panel of the product.

These terms apply prospectively only. Vogue is not required to recall any product.

- a) Class Members must complete and submit through the Settlement Website, by email or by regular mail a timely Claim Form (Schedule A of the present Agreement), in which he/she solemnly declares under penalty of law that he/she has purchased in Canada an Organix Product or a specified number of Organix Products between October 25, 2008 and the date of the Approval Order;

24. If BLG determines that a Claim meets the requirements specified above, BLG shall send the Class Member, by mail, the applicable Compensation within the delay specified by paragraph 26 herein.
25. If a Class Member submits an incomplete Claim or Claim Form, BLG shall give the Class Member written notice of the deficiencies and the Class Member shall have 60 days from the date of the written notice to cure the deficiencies. If, within the time provided, the Class Member cures these deficiencies and BLG determines that the Claim or Claim Form complies with the requirements specified above, BLG shall send the Class Member, by mail, the applicable Compensation. Class Member shall have only one opportunity to cure.
26. BLG shall begin to pay timely, valid, and approved Claims commencing ten (10) days after the close of the Claim Period so long as this period is after the Effective Date, or sooner upon Vogue's and Class Counsel's joint direction, but not before the issuance of the Court's Approval Order.
