

Between January 2000 and December 2010, did you buy Optical Disc Drives (“ODDs”) or products containing ODDs (including computers, DVD-players, Blu-ray players, video game consoles, etc.)?

If so, you might be affected by class action settlements, totalling CAD $8,853,940 and USD $500,000. The settlements are subject to Court approval.

For more information about the settlements, your options in relation to the settlements, and deadlines for acting:
